Talent Abounds at Hoxie Grade School Art

The “Hoxie Grade School has Heart!” mural was created with beautiful crayon resist hearts made by the students. The kids stand in the silhouette and think about what messages this image puts across to the world. Art Teacher, Kristin Johnson said, “My students brighten my days so much as they shower love on me in the Art Room!” (All photos courtesy of HGS Art)

At the beginning of September, a swing was added to the HGS tree. Students each created a watercolor leaf for this year’s interactive mural.

5th grade artists used white charcoal pencils to imagine their own robots, thinking about geometric shapes and adding value to create forms. The pencil robots on white paper were imagined by 6th grade artists as they began to prepare for their sculptures.

Voters Have the Opportunity to Restore Our State Government’s Checks and Balances

By: Kansas Agribusiness Retailers Association, Kansas Association of Wheat Growers, Kansas Cooperative Council, Kansas Grain and Feed Association, Kansas Grain Sorghum Producers Association, Kansas Livestock Association, Renew Kansas Biofuels Association

Kansas agriculture helps to feed, fuel, and clothe the world. Members of our organizations include farmers, ranchers, and companies directly involved in agribusiness. We proudly stand together as the voice of agriculture to promote and protect agriculture in our great state.

Under our system of government, the authority to create laws should be held by the state legislature - those people directly elected by, and answerable to, Kansas voters. Too often today, however, executive branch agencies pass rules and regulations that have the force and effect of law. Leaders of these agencies are not elected and are not directly answerable to the people.

In Kansas, agency regulations that exceed the legislature’s intent cannot be stopped by the legislature without passing a bill that can withstand a Governor’s veto. This unusual circumstance was set in place following a court ruling. It cedes law-making authority from the legislature to the executive branch and diminishes our system of checks and balances.

Kansas agriculture recognizes the important role regulatory agencies play in supporting our industry, and we support reasonable regulations on agriculture. Farmers, ranchers, and agribusinesses frequently work with regulatory agencies to identify issues and work toward compliance. At times, however, executive branch agencies misinterpret or exceed the authority

Sheridan County 4-H

By Roch Lager
 The Sheridan County 4-H Council met on October 4, 2022, at the Sheridan County Courthouse. Acting president, Macie Juenemann called the meeting to order. Max Beckman gave the Treasurer's Report. The Food Stand Report was final after making a donation to HAMA and paying Food Stand manager. There was some discussion about proper dress for livestock showmanship. Linda Lager and Dana Juenemann volunteered to review the graduating senior scholarship. Achievement Celebration will be November 6, at 6:00 at the 4-H Building. It was decided not to have the county-wide Christmas event because people are too busy with family.

Officer Training will be at Goddard Place on Sunday, October 23. 4-H online enrollment opened on October 1. The 4-H Extension asks that everyone be enrolled by November 15. Amanda Ostmeier and Dana Juenemann volunteered to look into the Council purchasing jackets for senior members. Election of officers was held. President is Max Beckman; vice-president is Evie Schippers; secretary is Macie Juenemann; treasurer is Jude Lager; and reporter is Roch Lager.

Patsy Maddy encouraged all the clubs to send the names of their new officers and their 2022-2023 Club Program Book to the office. The next meeting will be after the Achievement Celebration on November 6.

Local Level Fairness in Women's Sports Bills Taking Hold

In a 7-1 vote yesterday, the Shawnee City Council almost unanimously approved a list of legislative priorities including Fairness in Women's Sports bills that would ban athletes born biological males from participating in girls' sports. As governor, Democrat Laura Kelly has twice vetoed legislation on the issue, leaving young girls and women unprotected and local jurisdictions begging for state action to protect their residents.

From The Shawnee Mission Post:
 When public comments were over, Councilmember Eric Jenkins delivered a seven-minute speech taking commenters to task. He objected, he said, to councilmembers being characterized as homophobic, saying the item is meant to protect a young woman's years of hard work and dreams of sports accomplishment, and noted that he has a gay son.

Jenkins said he could relate to some of the arguments, but there's no way a female athlete will be able to compete against the muscle mass and lung capacity of a male athlete, he said.

"We're talking about protecting a young woman who's worked hard her entire life to achieve some goals she's set for herself and now we're going to just whisk that away from her because some guy decides he wants to be a female and he kind of wants to win the gold medal," Jenkins said.

"Democrat Laura Kelly twice failed to protect women and girls from the radical transgender agenda reaching into Kansas schools and sports," said RGA spokeswoman Joanna Rodriguez. "Now, local leaders are left to beg for a state solution that would protect their residents. It's clear Kansans are desperate for real leadership after years of Laura Kelly's obstruction."

Gavin Tremblay One of Four Crop Judging Scholars

Four sophomores attending the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture in Curtis have received $500 scholarships as team members of the NCTA Crop Judging Team.

The scholarships are sponsored by Ag Valley Co-op, a cooperative which has supported the NCTA Aggies and the agronomy program of Professor Brad Ramsdale for several years.

The students are Gavin Tremblay, Hoxie, Kansas; Codi LaBorde, Milliken, Colorado; Nolan Buss, Stockton, Kansas; and Garrett Thielen, Dorrance, Kansas. Their coach and agronomy professor is Dr. Ramsdale.

The four participated last year as freshmen and returned this fall to serve as leaders of the team.

"I have these four students and six first-year students on the 2022-23 team," said Ramsdale. The Crops Contest season includes two regional contests during the spring semester and the NACTA sponsored national competition at Modesto Junior College on April 13.

Crop judging is an academic program for students majoring in Agronomy or Diversified Agriculture. It provides an excellent complement to the required agronomy curriculum, Ramsdale said.

NCTA has been a leader among two-year colleges since Ramsdale founded the program in 2010.

"Ag Valley is proud to support the next generation of agriculturalists in educational endeavors," said Jeff Krejdl, general manager of Ag Valley Co-op. "We are proud to make a commitment to the Crops Judging Team at NCTA to further their educations."

The Aggies received a scholarship check and backpack during a presentation September 1, at an Ag Valley Co-op field day at North Platte.

The company currently employs one Aggie student and will attend the NCTA Career Fair on November 3, to visit with potential interns and new recruits.

"Ag Valley Co-op is supportive of NCTA students and our agronomy programs such as this summer's Agronomy Youth Field Day at NCTA," said Ramsdale. "We appreciate the scholarships and employment opportunities for Aggie graduates."

Part of the University of Nebraska system, the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture is a two-year institution with a statewide mission of preparing students for successful careers in agriculture, veterinary technology and related industries. NCTA is known for its affordable tuition, high job-placement rate for its graduates, and for the success of student teams in competitive activities including crops judging, ranch horse events, livestock judging, shotgun sports, stock dog trials, and intercollegiate rodeo. The college is consistently ranked as one of the best two-year schools in the nation.

My Sweet Grandma Was Wrong
About the Catholic Church

By Don Follis
October 9, 2022

My October 9 column for the Champaign-Urbana News-Gazette, explains how those prayer times started and became such a vital part of my life.

Three blocks from my boyhood home in Hoxie, Kansas, was the St. Francis Cabrini Catholic Church. Sidewalks circled the church building, weaving in and out of gardens behind the church.

It was a great place for a kid to ride his bike. My friend Kim and I wound through those sidewalks at full speed, circling the kneeling Madonna and child. That is, until one day when a nun dressed in full habit stopped us and said, “Father Smith doesn’t want you boys riding through the gardens like a couple of hooligans.”

Racing home, we two little protestant boys ran into my grandma, who lived with us, and told her what happened. Her eyes filled with worry. “Under no conditions should you ever get off your bikes and go inside that church. Do you understand me?”

“Why not?” I asked.

“You don’t want to know.”

Normally those would be just the words for me to tempt fate, but I never did go in. Not long ago, I asked my older sister, “Do you have any idea why grandma was so afraid of the Catholic church?”

Shrugging her shoulders she said, “I have no idea. That and lightning storms put her right under the bed.”

Nothing could have been more different in my 25 years as a campus minister at the University of Illinois. Early in my campus ministry days, a friend took me to lunch at St. John’s Catholic Newman Center on the northeast corner of 6th and Armory in Champaign. From the moment I stepped into the cafeteria, I liked it and felt right at home.

For years that cafeteria became my office. Before a new addition and cafeteria were opened in 2008, I gave spiritual counsel to untold students in the back corner of the old cafeteria, where I sat beneath an exhaust fan that droned out the background noise.

Jimmy the busboy (from 1964 to 2006) often had the table cleared and wiped down when I arrived. “I know you are meeting students who need some counseling, Donny,” he said. “I’ll be praying for you.”

In the early 80s, Father David Turner and I became friends. Almost every day in the cafeteria, Father David was surrounded by students, holding court as he waxed on about theology, politics, or sports.

One day when I was reading, Father David sat down and asked me a pointed question. “Brother Follis, how often do you go into St. John’s Chapel to pray when you are here?”

“I never have Father David,” I said.

“Never, Brother Follis. Say it’s not true.” When he discovered that I had some extra time that afternoon, he pointed toward the chapel and said, “I’m sending you on a mission. I want you to go up to the chapel right now and pray. Be sure and bless yourself at the baptismal font when you enter and when you leave.”

“I am not Catholic, Father David.”

“Brother Follis, that doesn’t matter. It is important to bless yourself.”

When I hesitated, he explained how to dip my fingers in the font, make the sign of the cross and pray, “In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.” Sitting there in the cafeteria, we practiced it together. “You have it,” he said. “Now get up there and pray.”

Throwing my backpack over my shoulder, I headed straight to the chapel, where I stood at the baptismal font. Dipping the fingers of my right hand in the water in the font, I raised them and made the sign of the cross as I prayed, “In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.” At the front of the chapel, I slipped into a pew, pulled down a kneeler, and prayed the Apostles’ Creed from a large print of the creed hanging on the wall.

From the fall of 1985 to July 2021 when I moved from Champaign-Urbana to Phoenix, I went inside St. John’s chapel several hundred times to pray. Every time, I blessed myself by making the sign of the cross at the baptismal font, walked to the front of the chapel, knelt on a kneeler, prayed the Apostles’ Creed and meditated on the marble crucifix hanging high above the altar.

Even today when I take my morning coffee to my favorite chair, I look at a small cross made of olive wood that I bought in Jerusalem, make the sign of the cross, confess my sins and pray the Apostles’ Creed.

If my grandma knew how important these practices would one day be for me, I can only imagine what she might have said.

All Our Problems...

By Don Follis
October 4, 2022

At the end of our Sunday services, we congregants at Living Faith Anglican Church in Tempe move our hands toward the cross and repeat what we learned from a church in Kenya...

“All our problems, we send to the cross of Christ.”

“All our difficulties, we send to the cross of Christ.”

“All the devil’s works, we send to the cross of Christ.”

Then raising our hands and arms heavenward we say, “And all our hopes, we set on the risen Christ!”

And to that I can only say, “Amen, and Amen!”

District 5 Kansas
State Board of Education

I want to thank those who voted for me in the August 2 primary. I greatly appreciate your confidence in seeking new representation when what is currently in place does not represent your values.

There is some information being circulated about me that is entirely false and I write to share some background.

I was born and raised in eastern Kansas, specifically on farms around and in the small town of Garnett.

I moved to Russell, then Hays, as a young adult and lived there for over 20 years, raising my six children. Three of my children finished school in Hays (one graduated from FHSU). I relocated my family to Olathe in 2005. Unlike the misinformation being spread about me having no ties to Kansas, every city I have mentioned resides within the state.

In Hays, I enjoyed participating in my children’s elementary school. I was active in the Home and School Association and served as president for a time. I coached many a soccer team and worked hard to be involved in every aspect of their lives.

Four of my six children still live in the state of Kansas, and I enjoy watching four of my thirteen grandchildren grow up in a community I like to call home.

As for my experience or lack thereof, according to these false statements, I have owned and operated my own business, worked for Chambers of Commerce, became the Executive Director of a Global Ministry, and was a key staff member for a large national law firm in Overland Park, Cordell & Cordell PC. In fact, one of the attorneys I worked with, who is now a partner of a firm, has written an endorsement for me being elected as a State Board of Education Member.

During the small amount of time I resided in Spokane, Washington with the transfer of my husband’s job, I continued to hold Kansas as home base, so inferring I have no ties to Kansas is a complete falsehood on their part.

I ran for this position as a voice for parents, grandparents, guardians and citizens who are very concerned about what is happening in our schools. I was elected by ‘the people’ to represent ‘the people’ of District 5. My qualifications are found in my passion and drive as a parent and grandparent to see change, needed change, occur. Apparently ‘the people’ who voted for me August 2 appreciate that over a long list of degrees and board positions.

I believe every board needs diversity of representation, so the entire population is truly being represented. If the only people qualified to serve on the State Board of Education are the ones with all the letters after their name, then where does that leave everyone else?

My local campaign was ‘Your Kids, Your Values, Your Voice Matters’. This is about parents being heard, understood, and represented, not the liberal elitists who deem they know better than you what is good for your children.

On November 8, I ask for your support, your vote, to send me, Cathy Hopkins, to Topeka to represent the parents, students, and teachers of District 5 State Board of Education.

Please email me with any questions.
Blessings,
Cathy Hopkins

The birthday coffee that was to have been reported in last weeks news got lost in the confusion, the occasion didn't. The morning of Sept. 27 found the female population of our fair village gathered around the dining table at the Elmer Rietcheck home to enjoy our first gathering since May. It was not only a morning to celebrate three birthdays but the ladies had a nice chance to see the progress of the almost-completed remodeling of the Rietchecks home. The Aug. 11 birthday of the hostess. Bernadine Rietcheck was duly recognized as was Gene Dempewolf's of the previous day, sept. 26; wishes in advance were extended to Norvella Prickett for her Oct. 1st birthday, as two coffees in less than 7 days is more than the schedule permits. Only a coffee in Seguin is important enough for an ambitious lady to arise at 3 a.m. to make fresh cinnamon rolls. Thanks Bernadine, it makes one feel so important.

Junior Iu Ribera began the game by kicking off to the Jackrabbits who returned the ball to the 11-yard line. Tribune made it through the Bulldog defense for a touchdown and extra point. After the ball was returned to the Dogs, carries by Freshman Diego Perez and Senior Mason Green brought the football to the second yard line. Perez carried the ball in for a touchdown. Ribera kicked the extra point and the Bulldogs led 8-7 early in the first.

Tribune was able to score on their next drive along with an extra point. The ball was recovered on kick return, but the Dogs were forced to punt. The Jackrabbits again scored on their drive despite a tackle for a loss by Junior Will Bruggeman and ran for the extra point.

Golden Plains succeeded in making it to the 4-yard line with runs by Perez and Green and a pass to junior Landon Meier, but the final run by Perez was stopped short of the endzone. The quarter ended with a score of 21-8 with Tribune in the lead.

The Bulldogs started the second quarter with the ball, but Greeley County forced a turnover and scored, extending their lead to 28-8.

Mary McDonald, Co-Editor

On Friday, September 30, Wheatland High School held their annual Homecoming game and crowning of the King and Queen. Candidates for this year's Homecoming were seniors Kaleb Dohm, Nathan Vollbracht, Wesley Stegeman, Kerri Heier, Halle Habiger, and Emma Thompson. The results for King and Queen were announced at half-time of the game. King Kaleb Dohm and Queen Kerri Heier reigned over the remaining Homecoming events. Kindergarteners Kendall Zerr and Eli Zerr served as Homecoming attendants this year. The 2022 Homecoming King and Queen, Tyrell Chapin and Isabella Ostmeier, came back to the Hawks Nest to escort the attendants.

For the Homecoming game, the Thunderhawks battled the Logan/Palco Trojans, and came out on top with a final score of 48-0. There were many stats from the seniors in this game. Senior Vollbracht had a total of 174 rushing yards, sr. Adam Phillips 50 receiving yards, and sr. Treven Humphries intercepted three times.

Senior Robert Mason stated, "It definitely felt good to win our homecoming game since we lost our first few games. Hopefully our season will be better now since we played together like a team Friday night."

The Final Home Volleyball Game

Emma Zerr, Staff Editor

The Volley-Hawks hosted the Weskan Lady Coyotes and the Dighton Hornets in a triangular at the Hawks' Nest on Monday, October 3. The match between the varsity Hawks and Hornets was a great one. The Lady Hawks took them into three sets. The third-round score was 25-17 Wheatland. The varsity Hawks and Lady Coyotes also played each other, but the score is not available at this time.

Freshman Evangeline Godek said, "Even though we were worn out from the homecoming week prior, we came out with two wins, and I am proud."

The Volley-Hawks also celebrated Head Coach Shannon Fosters' 300th career win.

Coach Shannon Foster said, "I have been so proud of the resiliency this team has shown. During the last week we have had to use a ton of different rotations. It was great getting back into the win column, and everyone has stepped up to help us keep moving even though we haven't had a complete team. All of this will help us become stronger as we build up for sub-state."

A few of the junior-varsity girls played on the varsity team that night. The Lady Hawks played a good couple of games that night, especially with Coach Fosters' 300th career win.

The next volleyball game for them is Tuesday, October 11 at Rexford.

Foreign Persons Must Report
U.S. Agricultural Land Holdings

USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) Sheridan County Executive Director, Ross B. Sloan, reminds foreign persons with an interest in agricultural lands in the United States that they are required to report their holdings and any transactions to the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture. “Any foreign person who acquires, transfers or holds any interest, other than a security interest, in agricultural land in the United States is required by law to report the transaction no later than 90 days after the date of the transaction,” said Sloan. Foreign investors must file Agricultural Foreign Investment Disclosure Act (AFIDA) reports with the FSA county office that maintains reports for the county where the land is located. “Failure to file a report, filing a late report or filing an inaccurate report can result in a penalty with fines up to 25 percent of the fair market value of the agricultural land,” said Sloan. For AFIDA purposes, agricultural land is defined as any land used for farming, ranching or timber production, if the tracts total 10 acres or more. Disclosure reports are also required when there are changes in land use. For example, reports are required when land use changes from nonagricultural to agricultural or from agricultural to nonagricultural. Foreign investors must also file a report when there is a change in the status of ownership such as owner changes from foreign to non-foreign, from non-foreign to foreign or from foreign to foreign. Data gained from these disclosures is used to prepare an annual report to the President and Congress concerning the effect of such holdings upon family farms and rural communities in the United States. For more information regarding AFIDA and FSA programs, contact the Sheridan County FSA office at 785-675-3591 or visit the USDA Web site at <http://www.usda.gov>.

Fall Applied Herbicides
Ahead of Corn and Sorghum

By Keith VanSlike, Twin Creeks Extension District, Agronomy & Natural Resources With row crop harvest well underway, it is time to start planning fall herbicide applications. Herbicide applications in late October through November can improve control of difficult winter annual weeds. Fall weed control is associated with warmer soils and easier planting in the spring, however, it is important to remember that fall-applied herbicides may limit your crop options in the spring. Also remember that herbicides should not be applied to frozen ground. Some of the key herbicides to consider for fall herbicide applications include chlorimuron (Classic, others), flumioxazin (Valor, others), sulfentrazone (Spartan, others), and Autumn Super, for residual activity. One thing to keep in mind about residual activity from fall herbicide applications is that weather conditions will influence the length of residual control and the weed emergence patterns. So, even though they provide some residual activity, additional spring application pre-emergence herbicides will likely be needed for season-long weed control. For burndown activity, glyphosate, 2,4-D or dicamba are good options to consider. However, recent price increases may make other products more attractive. Alternatives for grass control include Group 1 herbicides like clethodim (Select, others) or quizalofop (Assure II, others). Alternatives for controlling broadleaf weeds include paraquat (Gramoxone, others) or saflufenacil (Sharpen). Some of the key weeds to target with fall herbicide applications are marestail, henbit, dandelion, prickly lettuce, and recently emerged cool-season grasses. When higher rates of herbicides are used, some suppression of early spring-germinating summer annual broadleaf weeds such as kochia, common lambsquarters, wild buckwheat, and smartweed can be achieved. Marestail is a problem that merits special attention. Marestail is much easier to control in fall or early spring while it is still in the rosette growth stage. The use of trade names is for clarity to readers and does not imply endorsement of a particular product, nor does exclusion imply non-approval. Always consult the herbicide label for the most current use requirements. For more information on controlling bindweed and musk thistle, see 2022 Chemical Weed Control for Field Crops, Pastures, Rangeland, and Noncropland, K-State publication SRP-1169.

Waiting for Rain

By Kim Baldwin, McPherson County farmer and rancher The morning air has turned crisp, the temperatures have begun to drop, and the sun noticeably rises a little bit later every morning. It is definitely beginning to feel like fall on the farm.

Most evenings are also filled with a layer of dust in the atmosphere stirred up by the steady movement of the combines and tractors in the surrounding fields. While we continue to bring the grain out of the fields during fall harvest, we have also turned our attention to the fields that will soon have green shoots growing. It’s time to start sowing wheat. After missing rain showers practically all summer, we recently received some much-needed moisture. The slow, steady rain provided us assurance that it does, in fact, still rain on occasion. But it also provided our soil with enough moisture to ensure a good start for most of our wheat. The hard red winter wheat we place into the ground every fall has proven time and time again it can handle a lot of extreme weather conditions throughout the year. From arctic blasts in the winter, late freezes and hailstorms in the late spring, we know this crop is hardy. But one thing the wheat absolutely needs to ensure a good start is moisture in the ground.

For many months we’ve waited for it to rain. We’ve looked really hard for signs that a rain could be coming. We’ve been teased with chances of precipitation all summer to only see those chances dissipate to nothing within 10-day forecasts. We’ve prayed for it to rain. And we breathed a sigh of relief and gave thanks when the small rain finally came. It’s amazing how something like a rain shower can completely alter our outlook. It’s as if a rain can wash away any doubt that might have settled in our minds. It’s cleansing and provides the rejuvenation of faith we all need to begin a new season. It encourages us to firmly believe many seeds can and will be produced from one tiny seed planted into the ground.

As primarily dryland farmers, a rain shower is life-giving for our present and future crops alike. As we continue to sow the wheat into the soil this month, we know that we’ll need more rain to get to a successful harvest. And while the forecast doesn’t show any chance of precipitation in the near future, we’ll sow anyway. We’ll continue the tasks on the farm this fall and plan for a successful wheat crop this summer – all while patiently waiting on a rain. “Insight” is a weekly column published by Kansas Farm Bureau, the state’s largest farm organization whose mission is to strengthen agriculture and the lives of Kansans through advocacy, education, and service.

A PROPOSITION to amend sections 2 and 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas to require that a sheriff be elected in each county for a term of four years.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein: Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Sections 2 and 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas are hereby amended to read as follows:

“§ 2. County and township officers. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), each county shall elect a sheriff for a term of four years by a majority of the qualified electors of the county voting thereon at the time of voting designated for such office pursuant to law in effect on January 11, 2022, and every four years thereafter.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to a county that abolished the office of sheriff prior to January 11, 2022. Such county may restore the office of sheriff as provided by law and such restoration shall be irrevocable. A county that restores the office of sheriff shall elect a sheriff by a majority of the qualified electors of the county voting thereon for a term of four years. Such sheriff shall have such qualifications and duties as provided by law. The time of voting for the office of sheriff may be provided for by the legislature pursuant to section 18 of article 2 of this constitution.

(c) The filling of vacancies and the qualifications and duties of the office of sheriff shall be as provided by law.

(d) The legislature shall provide for such other county and township officers as may be necessary.”

“§ 5. Removal of officers. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), all county and township officers may be removed from office, in such manner and for such cause, as shall be prescribed by law.

(b) A county sheriff only may be involuntarily removed from office by recall election pursuant to section 3 of article 4 of this constitution or a writ of quo warranto initiated by the attorney general.”

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

“Explanatory statement. This amendment would preserve the right of citizens of each county that elected a county sheriff as of January 11, 2022, to continue electing the county sheriff. The amendment would also provide that a county sheriff only may be involuntarily removed from office pursuant to either a recall election or a writ of quo warranto initiated by the attorney general.

“A vote for this proposition would preserve the right of citizens of each county that elected a county sheriff as of January 11, 2022, to continue electing the county sheriff via popular vote. The amendment would also direct that a county sheriff only may be involuntarily removed from office pursuant to either a recall election or a writ of quo warranto initiated by the attorney general.”

“A vote against this proposition would not make any changes to the constitution and would retain current law concerning the election of a sheriff and the procedures for involuntary removal of a sheriff from office.

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

A PROPOSITION to amend article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto, concerning oversight by the legislature of certain executive branch actions.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

“§ 17. Legislative oversight of administrative rules and regulations.

Whenever the legislature by law has authorized any officer or agency within the executive branch of government to adopt rules and regulations that have the force and effect of law, the legislature may provide by law for the revocation or suspension of any such rule and regulation, or any portion thereof, upon a vote of a majority of the members then elected or appointed and qualified in each house.”

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

“Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to provide the legislature with oversight of state executive branch agencies and officials by providing the legislature authority to establish procedures to revoke or suspend rules and regulations.

“A vote for this proposition would allow the legislature to establish procedures to revoke or suspend rules and regulations that are adopted by state executive branch agencies and officials that have the force and effect of law.

“A vote against this proposition would allow state executive branch agencies and officials to continue adopting rules and regulations that have the force and effect of law without any opportunity for the legislature to directly revoke or suspend such rules and regulations.”

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Commission Minutes
10/4/22

Now on this 4th day of October 2022, the Board of Commissioners, Sheridan County, Kansas met in regular session with Chairman Wes Bainter presiding. Others present were Joe Bainter, Mike “Buck” Mader, County Attorney Joe Pratt and County Clerk Heather Bracht. Guests were Carolyn Meyer and The Sheridan Sentinel.

At 8:00 a.m. Wes Bainter called the meeting to order.

Those in attendance stood and recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Joe Herskowitz, Road & Bridge Supervisor, came to the table. Herskowitz advised the Board that the County should know about the Cost Share Program Application the end of October or first part of November. This is for the Sheridan Ave. to 10W road project.

The bridge by the Elk Ranch is coming along real well. They are currently working on the railing. The Road & Bridge employees have worked on some culverts and done some road work.

There is a road in the northwest corner of the county that was not marked on the map to be mowed and graded. This has been corrected. Other mowing and road work was discussed.

At 8:06, Wes Bainter made a motion to enter into executive session for a period of 15 minutes for the discussion of non-elected personnel. Mader seconded. Carried 3-0. Present were the Board, Herskowitz, Pratt, and Bracht. The door opened at 8:17 with no decision being made.

Pratt stated he had received the Attorney General's opinion on whether Kyle Ahlenstorf being elected as Commissioner in District #1 would be a conflict of interest. Attorney General's opinion is there is no conflict with Ahlenstorf being County Commissioner. Pratt reiterated it is not law, it is an opinion.

Pratt advised the Board that he had reviewed the documents previously generated when Birdie Reynolds had petitioned to have the alley vacated in Studley. Pratt stated if the adjoining landowner objects to vacating the alley, it's not done. Pratt will send a letter to Reynolds advising her of this and that she would be responsible for the expense associated with the process.

The Board approved and signed correspondence to KDOT showing support for Sheridan County/City of Hoxie's Cost Share Application for work to be done on Sheridan

Ave. to 10W. This will be emailed to Penco Engineering.

The Board and guests discussed the Attorney Generals opinion as it pertains to Ahlenstorf being elected County Commissioner and conflict of interest. It was suggested that it be a policy within the County's Employee Handbook. Pratt reiterated again that it is an opinion. If someone wants to take it to the judge, they can.

The Board and Bracht discussed the policy the Clerk's Office has regarding taking residents from the Long Term Care facility to outings, appointments, or anywhere else and there needing to be a CNA or other hospital staff with them. This policy has been questioned. The Commissioners fully support the decision of the Clerk's Office. The Board recognizes that this is a great service in the community and that sometimes it takes a lot of time.

Chad Koster, CEO, Rebecca Bird, CFO of the Sheridan County Health Complex and Ken Eland and Joy Bretz, Hospital Board Members came to the table to answer questions on the Emergency Room Project. Bird stated the financial report would be completed at the end of the month through the period ending September 30, 2022. There is approximately 3.4 million dollars not committed to projects. The 2.5-million-dollar emergency room project will be funded 64% by Medicare/Medicaid. Eland stated the project could be funded without bonds but economically it is better to fund it with bonds so if the need arose, they would have cash for an emergency.

The hospital is asking for the Commissioners to sign a document allowing the Critical Access Hospital (CAH) Board (Hospital Board of Trustees) to sign the paperwork, so they do not always have to come to the Commissioner Meeting for signature. Bretz stated the 2.5-million-dollar Acute Care Remodel Project included not only the construction cost but also beds, chairs, tables, etc. The Commissioners thanked everyone for coming and answering their questions.

The September 27, 2022 Minutes were approved as presented on a motion by Joe Bainter and second by Mader. Carried 3-0

At 9:13 a.m. with no further business, Wes Bainter made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Joe Bainter. Carried 3-0. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, October 11, 2022, at 8:00 in the courthouse main floor foyer.

Attest: Heather Bracht, County Clerk, Wes Bainter, Chairman

MAKE HEADS OR TAILS OF COIN SWITCH?

LIKE to switch things around? Try your hand at this old poser. P.S.: It has a catch to it, natch.

Arrange a group of 12 similar-size coins, as at left, alternating heads and tails.

Now then, see if you can rearrange the scheme of things so that each vertical row consists of all heads or all tails simply by touching and manipulating just one coin.

That is to say, rearrange the setup, for instance, so that the first and third rows are all heads, and the second and fourth row tails.

And all this by touching and manipulating one coin.

How is it done?

and Development (SEED) grant which is a state grant in which communities can apply for up to $50,000 for funding to help with childcare, senior programs, equipment and supplies, beautification, libraries, etc. Karl stated that he has a proposal put together to share with the County Commission at their next meeting to see if they would agree to apply for that grant. Pratt exited at 7:54 p.m.

Armknrecht informed the Commission that Jason Schippers with B.T.I. contacted him to let him know that he could order mowers now, but there was still no guarantee that he could get one. The price for a new John Deere mower with trade in was $12,578.85. The amount given for the trade-in would be $11,000.00. Mayor Zerr made a motion to purchase the new mower with trade. Schoendaler seconded the motion. Armknrecht also mentioned that he's been having issues with the loader again and would like to see about getting a new loader by 2027. The loader would be 30 years old at that time.

At 8:08 p.m., Sheriff Carver entered the meeting. He wanted to let the Commission know that things were working really well with the law enforcement contract between the County and the City. He also wanted to mention that the Sheriff's Office would be doing stricter enforcement and giving warning on no seatbelts, no turn signals, cracked windshields, etc. Sheriff Carver stated that he would be posting a notice on Facebook. He informed the Commission that K9 Dak had to be retired due to health issues. The County Commission approved the purchase of another K9. Dak will remain with Officer Babcock. Carver exited at 8:18 p.m.

The warrants and overtime for the month of August were reviewed, approved, and signed by the Commissioners.

With no further business, Mayor Zerr made a motion to adjourn. Schoendaler seconded the motion. Motion carried 3-0.

MYTH SMASHERS

MYTH:

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING DOESN'T WORK.

REALITY:

GOOGLE'S OWN RESEARCH SHOWS THAT
56 PERCENT OF CONSUMERS RESEARCHED
OR PURCHASED PRODUCTS THEY SAW IN A NEWSPAPER. GOOGLE ALSO SAYS THAT NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING REINFORCES
ONLINE ADS: 52 PERCENT ARE MORE
LIKELY TO BUY PRODUCTS IF THEY SEE IT
