Operation Christmas Child Collection Dates Coming Up

This month families, churches and groups are busy transforming empty shoeboxes into fun gifts filled with toys, school supplies and hygiene items. Operation Christmas Child is in full swing, with National Collection Week set for Nov. 15-22.

Operation Christmas Child is a ministry of Samaritan's Purse, an international Christian relief organization headquartered in Boone, N.C. Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has collected and delivered more than 188 million gift-filled shoeboxes to children in more than 170 countries and territories. For many children, this is the first gift they will ever receive.

Rachel Albin, Northwest Kansas area director, said that 7,130 boxes were collected in Northwest Kansas in 2020.

Hoxie has a new drop-off location at Christ Community Church, 2008 Sheridan Ave. Drop-off times are:

- Monday, Nov. 15: 10 a.m. to noon.
- Tuesday, Nov. 16: 10 a.m. to noon.
- Wednesday, Nov. 17: 6 to 8 p.m.
- Thursday, Nov. 18: 4 to 6 p.m.
- Friday, Nov. 19: 4 to 6 p.m.
- Saturday, Nov. 20: 9 a.m. to noon.
- Sunday, Nov. 21: 9 a.m. to noon.
- Monday, Nov. 22: 8 to 10 a.m.

Albin said, "I'm thrilled that the Hoxie church is able to offer a local drop-off location for those in and around the community. The ministry knows that making it easier for people to find a location and drop off their shoeboxes increases participation."

"This church is excited to serve its community and fulfill sending love and hope through these shoebox gifts that the children will receive," she added.

Those who prefer the convenience of online shopping can browse <https://sampur.se/3bUrNo6> to select gifts matched to a child's specific age and gender, then finish packing the virtual shoebox by adding a photo and personal note of encouragement.

More information is available from Albin at (785) 639-1325 or ralbinmk@yahoo.com.

SHERIDAN COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

November 2021 Match Month Campaign Off to a Great Start

The Sheridan County Community Foundation is pleased to report that $21,245 in donations toward the 2021 November Match Month challenge have already been received at the time of this publication.

"We are off to a fantastic start!" said SCCF Board Liaison Karl Pratt. "This is such an important campaign for not just the Foundation, but for our county and residents as it will benefit them and all future generations for perpetuity!"

This is the sixth year for the Foundation to participate in the annual fundraising campaign, which is sponsored by the Dane G. Hansen Foundation, Logan. The Hansen Foundation will match $1 for $1 all funds raised locally up to $50,000 by the Sheridan County Community Foundation.

Sheridan County has reached and surpassed that goal each year. SCCF invites all those able to contribute to help them do so again this year, which has the potential of adding $100,000 to the Cultivate Sheridan County Endowment Fund, from which future grants will be given to area organizations.

No donation amount is too big or too small for this challenge. All with an affinity for Sheridan County and the communities therein are encouraged to contribute and help make a difference in the lives of those in the area for years to come. Donations can be mailed to SCCF, PO Box 445, Hoxie, KS 67740; dropped off at Bottle KAP Studios at 721 Main St. in Hoxie or online at www.gnwkcfcf.org/donate-sheridanmatch.

For more information and to apply, visit www.growsheridancounty.org/grants. You can also contact SCCF Board Liaison Karl Pratt at 785-675-1240, karlpratt.sccf@gmail.com.

SCCF is an affiliate of the Greater Northwest Kansas Community Foundation based in Bird City. The foundation seeks to encourage, prudently manage, and distribute charitable contributions to improve the quality of life in Sheridan County residents, now and in the future. To learn more, visit www.growsheridancounty.org. Connect with SCCF at www.facebook.com/sheridanccf.

A Look Back at Grants Awarded in 2016

Through the incredible generosity of the Dane G. Hansen Foundation, Logan, our local Sheridan County Community Foundation has been able to award $620,700 in grants to organizations with projects, events and activities benefitting Sheridan County since 2015.

Since that time, the Hansen Foundation has been awarding $100,000 to the SCCF to distribute annually as long as SCCF continues to participate in several Hansen-sponsored initiatives including the Strategic Doing process to assist in project development and completion, the annual Match Month Challenge and other initiatives.

According to the Hansen Foundation's website:

The Dane G. Hansen Foundation works with regional foundations Greater Northwest Kansas Community Foundation (GNWKCF), Bird City, and the Greater Salina Community Foundation (GSCF), Salina, to assist in the distribution of grants through individual countywide community foundations throughout the Hansen Foundation's 26-county service area.

Funds supplied by the Hansen Foundation are distributed equally among the 26 counties. Administration assistance is provided by the host foundations.

Beginning in 2014 and continuing through 2021, the Hansen Foundation has distributed $100,000 a year to each of the 26 counties. Beginning in 2022, the pass-through grant funds will be reduced to $50,000 each year in conjunction with the announcement of new funding opportunities for the countywide community foundations through the matching initiative.

It goes without saying that we are very fortunate to be a part

Raised by us from birth to finish

The last two weeks have been interesting to say the least. Duck season is running now, and goose season started last week. Now, you would think with all the geese we've been seeing and hearing fly over it would be great hunting. But as usual the weather decided to change the rules. Anyone who knows me will tell you I live and breathe goose hunting. But with temps in the 70's and 80's it's hard to get excited. My group did manage our annual trip to Cheyenne Bottoms last week, and wouldn't you know, the whooping cranes are there. They sure put a damper on the hunting as areas get closed to hunting. Our group, being the geniuses we are, forgot you can still hunt dark geese on the firing line, just not light geese, or cranes. Well, we remembered, right after we got home on Thursday. Webster had quite a few Canada geese, as well as Norton. But be very careful. As on November 6, there are whooping cranes at Norton, Kirwin, Glen Elder, Jamestown, Cheyenne Bottoms, and Quivira N.W.R. I think I'll stay away until they are gone and the weather changes.

At the Bottoms we did run into two KDWP employees who were extremely helpful in giving us ideas on how to get at the geese. We still didn't shoot any but at least we had several thousand pass overhead, which was cool. We also saw a pair of Trumpeter swans. Folks, those are very loud birds. We could hear them long before we saw them! The sheer numbers of pheasant and quail there was impressive.

Thursday afternoon saw my son and me at Webster, sitting in a milo field. All was quiet until I heard Joe speak "Hey buddy, how's it going?" A whitetail buck had walked to within 10 feet of him. For a few seconds I don't think the deer realized what was happening. But when he did, he left in a flurry of dirt and milo flying in the air. It was hilarious to watch!

Ok, the election is over. I didn't get elected mayor, and I'm fine with that. After talking to them, it was an honest mistake. Thank you, Dawn for talking to me. Also, I noticed that only my signs were stolen the previous week. And again, to those who said it's no big deal, you are more than welcome to reimburse me the cost of the stolen signs. I also found out just how some people in this town really are. Not everyone, but some. You know who you are.

So, it's official, January 4 we are supposed to bow to the communists in government and get the vaccine whether we want it or not. Then they want a vaccine pass to be able to go anywhere or do anything. Now look closely at this. Who is demanding this? Democrats and liberal Republicans. On this note, I was pleasantly surprised to see our governor speak out against the mandate. She is also wanting to eliminate sales tax on food.

I'm going to stop referring to those people as liberals or Democrats. They have officially become communists! When you have to have papers to do normal everyday things like eat out or go shopping that's communism. I do hope you locals that voted for this evil party are just so happy with yourselves. So much for being a free country! I also see that some congressmen have stood up and sued, as have several states' attorney generals! I do hope they succeed in this!

I also have issues with how much I spend being reported to the government. I want to know the real reason they need to know if anyone spends over $600. What are they planning? If you think it's to track drug purchases and contraband, you're a fool. Just another one of the communist plots to take over our lives. Mark my word, communism is coming unless We The People stop it. I, for one, am more than ready to do whatever it takes to stop the destruction of our country. I just hope more people get on board. I guess I will just wait until the next election and try again. But I ask you readers, what kind of country do you want? A free country where we can live as we choose, or a communist country where the government decides every aspect of your lives. It's your choice. Choose wisely.

The Hoxie Democrat
Friday, November 11, 1887

Polite invitations were extended to people to go into the draw west of town and settle little differences Wednesday evening.

E. H. Thompson had a run away last Wednesday night. The team broke the wagon all to pieces and Thompson after he got to town had his head in danger.

J. P. Roswell is now located in the Democratic office where he will be glad to see all his friends and those who want anything in the jewelry or watch repairing line.

W. F. Schultheis is away on a land deal. Prince and Coleman are a good team to tie to. Prairie Dog township still holds the banner.

J. E. R. Ewing is spending a few days in town. Hundreds of people were in town on Wednesday. J. M. Carson says he is sorry but he will take his medicine.

A huge bonfire blazed in the street last Wednesday evening and I. H. Prince was serenaded.

Did you see Wright dance last night? Bill Humes don't like oysters. Sentinel, no infringement on copyright.

The A. O. U. W. did itself proud last night. Patterson had a fair appetite last night. Joe Flynn, the commercial tourist, is in town.

G. A. Griffes was in the city last Thursday evening.

The election is now over and we, at least, are satisfied and will now try and give our readers more news in the future.

Married - On Nov. 10, 1887, Levi S. Carpenter, of Salina, Kan., and Flora E. Barnett, of Adel. Judge Wanzer officiating.

If the Sentinel desires to start a list of cranks and add our name we have no objection but we don't want them to steal any of our thunder.

A. Cressler has just returned from Jefferson county, Colo. ado; where he has been before the grand jury on the mule stealing case. He reports that Dunham forfeits his bond as an accessory, and J. M. Stevens also his as a material witness.

The A. O. U. W. Banquet was a grand success. Everything passed on smoothly and all left happy. The association deserves great praise and it was the wish of all that they would have many more such suppers and dances this winter.

A contract will be let for the carrying of the mail from Hoxie via Elliott and Adel to Allison. Sealed bids will be received at the post-office for the next nine days. Mail to be carried tri-weekly.

Judge Hedge says his experience has been that "free" entertainments cost more than those where there is an admission fee.

Jake Mosier will hold a shooting match for turkeys at the grounds east of town the day before Thanksgiving. All are invited to come and secure a turkey for Thanksgiving dinner. The turkeys are all fat.

The oratorical contest held at the school house last Saturday was a genuine success, a large crowd being present and the entertainment exceptionally good. There were seven contestants composed as follows: Sanders Cain, R. S. Brogan, Mrs. Brogan, Geo Weist, Misses Winona Douglas, Lena Warner and Clara Weist. Miss Weist took first and Mrs. Douglas second prize.

Word comes to us through Commissioner Ottkin of a sad accident which happened to a young man by the name of Bronson who lives with his parents just over the line in Thomas county last Saturday. He and his father had arranged to butcher some hogs and his father brought out the gun with which to shoot them, when in some mysterious manner it was discharged, the whole charge entering the young man's abdomen. At last reports life still existed, but the attending physician stated that there was little possible how of recovery.

A one-armed man in St. Joseph has been arrested for hugging women on the street. We don't attach any blame to the St. Joe girls for having a one-armed man arrested for hugging them, when there is such a "superfluity" of two-armed men. A half a hug would never do in Kansas and we are proud to note that Missouri is fast approaching the same high standard of civilization.

Three Selden boys were in town Saturday, all of them on the same mission. Were we in the place of the Selden girls a mighty hard kick would go up.

DSNWK Receives Dane G. Hansen Foundation Grant

Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas is proud to announce a grant award of $100,000 from Dane G. Hansen Foundation for the replacement of vehicles.

With the grant funds, DSNWK will replace several vehicles that have high mileage or excessive age with newer, gently used vehicles. The replacement of these identified vehicles will improve the safety and reliability of the everyday transportation needed for individuals served as they go to medical appointments, work, day centers, activities, and home.

"Reliable transportation is essential for DSNWK's services," expressed Jerry Michaud, DSNWK President and CEO. "Nearly 70% of the vehicles in our fleet are high mileage or excessive age. Newer vehicles reduce maintenance costs, improve fuel efficiency and provide current safety features, which will have a direct impact on transportation expenses each year."

DSNWK would like to thank Dane G. Hansen Foundation for their generosity and support of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

DSNWK is a 501(c)(3) non-profit serving those with intellectual and developmental disabilities in the 18 most northwestern Kansas counties. Visit www.dsnwk.org or www.dsnwk.giftlegacy.com to learn more about services and ways to support DSNWK's work with individuals with developmental disabilities throughout northwest Kansas.

Additional Grant Support for ECE Initiative

The Dane G. Hansen Foundation is pleased to announce additional grant opportunities for Early Childhood Education in Northwest Kansas.

Since 2017, multiple reports from Strategic Doing sessions in the 26-county service area of the Foundation have identified the need for additional childcare options. The shortage of childcare effects the ability of a community to grow, equating to fewer homes sold, fewer children in our schools, and fewer employees available for our businesses.

In response, the Hansen Trustees launched NW Kansas Cares for Kids in 2020 with three grants designed to assist childcare centers in attracting and retaining quality staff and provide needed tools to prepare the enrolled children with the skills to enter Kindergarten ready to continue learning.

St. Paul Daughters of Isabella #400

Jeanne Struckhoff, Scribe

On November 1, St. Paul D of I met at 10:30 to audit books in the Educational Center in Grinnell. We prayed the Rosary after which Millie served us a nice lunch. Our Regent called the meeting to order, with Opening Prayer, Opening Ode and Pledge to the Flag. Janice Baalman was installed our Chancellor by Millie and then we draped the Charter in honor of Kathleen Zerr.

Chaplains message read by Janice was "Blessed are the poor in spirit for this is the Kingdom of Heaven." Lack of worldly goods, we begin to grow rich in spirit. Detachment from wealth and property creates in us a sense of humility. The Kingdom of Heaven will be given to those distinguished by their humility. While wealth is not evil in itself it is needed for the well being of society, it does however risk the neglect of God.

Secretary called the roll call of officers. The minutes were read. There was a correction by Millie seconded by Janice which carried. Treasurer Lee Ann then gave her report. Communication was an informational letter from new state regent and thank you cards from the Zerr family and Kathleen Bieker.

Those ill were Bob Losey, Mickey Weiser, Bonnie Huelsman, Ray Schroeder, and Mary Gormley. A Mass will be said in Grinnell November 9, the annual Memorial Service for deceased members.

Meeting adjourned, with Closing Prayer and Closing Ode. Next meeting is December 6.

'New Music Festival' on Tap at Fort Hays State

The fourth annual New Music Festival, presented by Fort Hays State University's Department of Music and Theatre, will be held on Friday, November 12, and Saturday, November 13.

Comprised of FHSU music faculty who share a passion for the music of living composers, the New Music Ensemble commissions composers to bring new and exciting works to Hays. These composers in residence work with FHSU composition students and present a lecture to faculty, students, and community members. They also rehearse with the ensemble on a brand-new work to premiere at the festival.

"It's exciting to have a work written specifically for our ensemble, and our audience members will be the first people in the world to hear it," said Dr. Kristin Pisano, associate professor of music and director of the New Music Festival at FHSU.

Pisano said that past works commissioned by FHSU have since been performed at other universities and national conferences, bringing recognition to Fort Hays State and its music department.

This year's composer in residence will be Dr. Stephen Andrew Taylor, a professor of composition at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He has composed Piranesi for flute and piano, his new work that will be premiered at the festival's evening concert.

The culminating event of the festival, "An Evening of the Music of Dr. Stephen Andrew Taylor," will begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Sheridan Hall's Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center. A reception will follow in the lobby. Tickets are free to the public and will be available at the door or beforehand at the Hays Convention and Visitor's Bureau, 2700 Vine.

The concert will feature other works by Taylor, including two works for viola and electronics, a duo for flute and clarinet, and a video installation set to the scenario "the spirit of the universe takes a journey." Taylor will also perform an original piano composition.

Taylor composes music that explores boundaries between art and science. One work on the evening program is Solaria, a video created in collaboration with physicist Smitha Vishveshwara, who studies black holes.

Pisano said that Vishveshwara is passionate about the connections between science and art and that she and Taylor came up with this scenario "the spirit of the solar system takes a journey."

"The 2021 New Music Festival will open the musical ears of the Hays community and provide the audience with a uniquely different musical experience," Pisano said.

In addition to the concert, Taylor will give a lecture at 2:30 p.m. Friday in the university's Malloy Hall 115. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Battle of the Saline — Battle Site History Tour and Presentation

November 20, 2021 - C2T Ranch - North of Hays on the Saline River

On August 1, 1867, a crew of railroad workers were killed by Cheyenne, at Campbell's Camp, near what is now called Victoria. Word of the attack reached Ft. Hays, and 30 troopers from Co. F, 10th Cavalry were sent to the site. After arriving, troopers lead by Capt. Ames followed the north branch of Big Creek in pursuit. When no signs of the Cheyenne were found, they returned to Campbell's Camp. Word was sent back to the fort to send additional troops. Ames waited for the troops until after day light, but then headed directly north to the Saline River. They followed the Saline River west, approximately 15 miles, where they were then surrounded and ambushed by Cheyenne. After battling the Cheyenne in two different areas, they retreated and fought their way back to Ft. Hays.

The actual site of the battle had never been determined. C2T Ranch is excited to announce that the location has been identified and certified by archeologists from the Kansas State Historical Society. Ranch historian and battle site archivist, Mike Cox, along with members of his crew Ryan Ruth and Josh Balman, have discovered and identified over a hundred period artifacts spread out across over 40 acres. This information was confirmed by KSHS archeologist Nikki Klarmann during a tour of the site in May 2021.

During this battle six Indians and one trooper were killed. Sgt. William Christy of Pennsylvania was shot in the head and killed. He was the first casualty of the Buffalo Soldiers. Mike Cox, who has spent four years combing the area with a metal detector, believes he has found the saber handle that belonged to Christy when he fell.

These and other artifacts, the story of the battle, and first-hand account of Nicodemus trooper Samuel Garland will be shared with the public, on Saturday, November 20. Registration for the History Tour is required and restrictions at the property will be enforced. Barrie Tompkins, President of the Nicodemus Buffalo Soldiers will be at the site to perform a characterization of "The Life and Times of the Buffalo Soldiers" and share the general history of the soldiers. Angela Bates, descendent and executive director of the Nicodemus Historical Society, will present the story of her great-uncle Samuel Garland who was present at the battle.

Archeologists from the State Historical Society visited the site in April to confirm its location. Professor Jay Steinmetz at Ft. Hays is working in conjunction with those involved, to complete the official designation forms for the site. Mathew Rome, a Ft. Hays intern with the Nicodemus Historical Society, is assisting Mike Cox with processing the many artifacts that have been found.

This history tour is just the beginning of future plans for other events, depicting the history of the Cheyenne and Buffalo Soldiers in the area. Everyone involved looks forward to working with interested parties, such as FHSU and Historic Fort Hays, to ensure the site, artifacts, and information is preserved for future generation to enjoy and learn from.

For further information please contact: Chad Tuttle @ (785) 303-2098 or Angela Bates (785) 839-8200.

Options Domestic & Sexual Violence Services Launch Project Pathway

Thanks to a $41,000 donation from Robert E. and Patricia A. Schmidt Foundation, Options Domestic & Sexual Violence Services Inc. will be launching Project Pathway, a new way of training trauma advocates. Options employs 22 staff in northwest Kansas providing 24-hour crisis-intervention services to 18 counties around domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, dating violence, and sex trafficking through 2 offices and 1 safe house.

The significant impact of domestic and sexual violence in Kansas calls for a workforce that is both highly skilled and capable of meeting the demands of these complex and challenging jobs. Yet despite the increasing visibility of domestic violence, the workers—and work itself—have largely remained invisible. Helping trauma-impacted adults and children is a difficult job that often has secondary traumatic effects on staff - which leads to high turnover, burnout, and compassion fatigue.

Through Project Pathway, Options staff will have an 18-month training and certification process through the nationally recognized, evidence-based Creating PRESENCE program (Dr. Sandra Bloom) resulting in new case management strategies, treatment and care plans for clients, and self-care and resilience for themselves as the caregivers.

Workforce development is key to ensuring that victims and survivors of domestic and sexual violence receive competent services to help them heal and move on to lead healthy, productive lives. Project Pathway provides both clients and staff at Options with basic knowledge about trauma, adversity, and stress, and advances the emergence of trauma-informed values, knowledge, practice, and skills. This benefits staff through workforce development, and clients through better care and treatment plans.

Project Pathway focuses on client and staff safety and recognizes that trauma has an impact on not only those who have experienced it, but also on the staff who work with them. Staff will also receive training to implement the S.E.L.F. curriculum with clients. S.E.L.F. is a trauma informed framework that focuses on safety, emotional management, loss, and future for victims of trauma. Finally, staff will also receive training from the Family Peace Initiative which teaches the staff the value and risks of leading by example in group facilitation.

"We have raised about 88% of the funding we need so far, thanks in large part to the Schmidt Foundation. With their partnership

The children of Katherine Brungardt have established a scholarship close to her childhood home. Schools in this area include Hoxie and Golden Plains. To apply one must intend to enter a Kansas university, college, technical school, training school or vo-tech with the intention of pursuing a course of study/training that could benefit western Kansas and/or agriculture (examples include agri-industry, business, teaching, journalism, skilled trade, and other majors/studies which could benefit western Kansas either directly, through the student's return, or indirectly, through the student's job path). The U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) provides more than 1,000 merit-based fully funded opportunities for U.S. high school students to study abroad for a summer or an academic year in more than 25 countries. These high school exchange programs prepare young Americans to succeed in the 21st century's global economy by developing their foreign language skills, increasing their cross-cultural understanding, strengthening their confidence and leadership capacity, and fostering new academic insights and ambitions. The application periods vary by place, be it Middle East, Africa, Asia, Europe, the Caribbean, or South America.

Scholarships cover international airfare, tuition, program costs, meals, and living accommodations (often with a host family). The programs have no language prerequisites, except for certain Youth Ambassadors programs. Applicants must be between the ages of 15 and 18.5 when the program starts. We are particularly trying to reach young people who would not otherwise have the opportunity to participate in a study abroad experience. "It was nice to be recognized as an All-State player," said Loya, "especially since my brother had also received this honor. It would have been nice to be playing in the Wild West Bowl, but I was glad to represent Golden Plains and our team and all the work I've put in the past four years. "We all set or tied PR's so it was a good last regular meet for us," said Ava Brantley. "Everyone has improved very well. Their next meet for the Bulldogs will be on October 23, at Ness City for regionals."

FCCLA Superheroes

By Isabella Ostmeyer, Co-Editor

On Wednesday, October 27, the Wheatland High School FCCLA students attended the District A Conference at the Impact Center in Oakley, KS. There were over 120 students from seven different schools present. Wheatland High School had one advisor and twenty-four students in attendance. The conference was led by the district officer team, as well as district advisor, Kelli Perez from Norton, KS. Four students from WHS serve as district officers this year, Livia Schultz, Anna Godek, Isaac Mendez, and Treven Humphries. The day started with a keynote speaker, then the students transitioned into breakout sessions in groups of wrist band colors and ended with a meeting.

The first breakout session was led by the District Secretary. This consisted of painting pumpkins that would be for all to keep and take home. The next session was an icebreaker activity led by the State Vice President of Membership, Bre Warren. Bre led each group in the "Move if You" game. Where you would move and find a different seat if you had an association with the topic. Some examples include, "Move if you are wearing shoes," "Move if you have brown hair," "Move if you are a sophomore," and many others. The last, and final, breakout session of this conference was a lock box that students had to find the answers to the locks through puzzles and other challenges. The FCCLA State Peer Education Team led this activity and guided the students to success.

The district officers ended the conference with a formal business meeting. The president was unable to make it to the conference, so

Speech Class Takes Part in Conservation District Contest

By Carolyn Nelson, DTP Advisor

For most WHS students, Monday, November 1, was a day off because of teacher in-service. For the WHS speech class, however, it meant a trip to Gove to the County Conservation District Speech Contest. The topic this year was "Where would we be without pollinators?" Seven students presented their research about the crucial role of pollinators in gardening, farming, and even life itself. Students gave information about types of pollinators, how other countries cope with a smaller number of bees and butterflies, and even shared news about the robotic pollination currently being used.

Mrs. Nelson, speech teacher, stated, "For many of the students this was their first speech to an audience other than the classroom, so it was somewhat intimidating for them. I was proud of their work and their conduct. It was a valuable learning experience, and we will continue to build from this point."

Contest results will be announced next week.

consistent and teaching me to be the player I am today."

"Roberto has put in a lot of hard work over the past four years and is very deserving of this honor," said Coach Travis Smith. "I appreciate everything Roberto has done to make our football team a success over the past four years. I know Roberto was upset that he and his senior teammates could not finish their careers at the Wild West Bowl, but he represented all of them by being named First Team All-State. Without his team, this wouldn't have been possible."

WHS Falls Short at State Volleyball

By Jaidlyn Harvey, Staff Reporter

Wheatland High School Volleyhawks traveled to Emporia for State Volleyball. The girls worked as hard as they could but fell short of a win.

The girls started the day off with Hutch Central Christian. The final score of the first set was 25-21 and the final score of the second set was 25-10. The girls fought hard being led by their head coach Shannon Foster. They played well as a team but fell short of a win. Sophomore Karoline Schroeder led the team in digs with a total of 10.

Then the girls moved on and played the Bucklin Lady Aces. The girls worked well as a team and came out with a win with final scores of 27-24 and 25-17. The girls had a hard time getting the ball down past the block. When they were able to set the ball up, the outcome came together for them. Senior Anna Godek led the team with a total of 20 assists, while Senior Livia Schultz attacked at the Red Aces best with 11 kills.

Senior Livia Schultz speaks of her senior year state experience, "Leaving the court after the final game on Friday was one of the most bittersweet moments. We all had high hopes headed into the tournament, but it just wasn't our day. As it being my last year on the court - I will be forever thankful for the team and coaches!"

The Lady Volleyhawks ended their day battling the Lebo Lady Wolves. This was their best game of the night. They played really well as a team but did not come out with a win. The final scores of the match were 28-30 and 12-25. The team strived really hard but fell short of their ultimate goal. Senior Isabella Ostmeyer led the team with a total of 14 digs, with Schultz and Sophomore Karoline Schroeder trailing with 11.

Head Coach Shannon Foster stated, "Even though we fell short of our ultimate goal, I hope the girls are able to look back and realize all that they were able to accomplish this year and to recognize the growth in the team as well as themselves. I am so proud of this group and thankful for all of our experiences this year."

KFB Health Plans Announces No General Rate Increase

For the second consecutive year, members of Kansas Farm Bureau Health Plans (KFBHP) will see no general rate increase for the 2022 coverage year. The 10,000-plus covered lives in Kansas will continue to benefit from the significant savings KFB Health Plans offers, which have allowed them to invest in their operations, start retirement accounts or even add flexibility to their budgets.

"Members have reported saving up to 60 percent on their premiums while choosing coverage to best fit their lifestyle," says Erin Petersilie, KFB Health Plans assistant director. "We started KFB Health Plans to provide quality, affordable coverage to our members and that's exactly what we've done."

Sedgwick County farmer Brian Wetta says a second year with no general rate increase for KFB Health Plans is very different from what he experienced through the ACA federal marketplace.

"The premiums went up every year and there weren't any changes to the benefits," he says. "We needed a more affordable healthcare option and KFB responded. I'm single and this plan is just what I need."

In addition to offering affordable coverage, KFBHP comes with peace of mind for members who have the misfortune of needing the coverage, like Jeff Winter.

"I was cleaning out the grain bin and I went to turn off the auger," Winter recalls. "My glove caught the belt and threw my glove against the wall. It didn't take very long before I realized I was also missing my right trigger finger."

While doctors were unable to reattach Winter's finger, he had no worries about paying for the treatment he received. "Everything went through and there weren't any battles," he says. "It seemed like everything went really well with it."

That's because in addition to the substantial savings KFBHP offers, members receive coverage through a nationwide network of health professionals, including no-cost virtual consultations through TeleDoc. Additionally, members can choose to add dental and vision coverage if they currently have a plan that doesn't offer it, and Medicare supplement plans are available for those 65 and older.

KFB Health Plans are individually underwritten and for some plans require a physical prior to receiving coverage if applicants are over 40. So far, nearly nine out of 10 applicants have been offered coverage through KFBHP. Unlike insurance coverage through the health care exchange, there is no open-enrollment period for KFB Health Plans.

"If you miss the Jan. 15 deadline to sign up for an exchange plan, we accept new members every day," Petersilie says. "Even if you currently have an exchange plan, I'd be happy to help you compare cost and coverage to see if we could help you save hundreds of dollars each month, possibly more."

A Kansas Farm Bureau membership is required to begin enrollment. Visit www.kfbhealthplans.com for more information or visit your local Farm Bureau Financial Services agent.

KS Dept. of Ag Receives $500,000 Grant to Promote Mental Health

Governor Laura Kelly announced Kansas has received a $500,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) to spread awareness for the KansasAgStress.org website and destigmatize mental health in Kansas' agriculture community.

"This $500,000 grant will help us destigmatize mental health and promote the wellbeing of Kansas farmers, ranchers, and our agriculture workforce," said Governor Laura Kelly. "Kansas farmers and ranchers feed the world - they're critical to society, and my administration will continue to use every resource available to support them. I want to thank the USDA and the Kansas Department of Agriculture for prioritizing the mental health of Kansas' agriculture community."

The Kansas Department of Agriculture will use funding to create a statewide campaign to raise awareness for the KansasAgStress.org website, develop reusable media content, and work to destigmatize the concept of mental health awareness while lowering suicide rates in the agriculture industry in Kansas.

There are several external factors that contribute to stress in the agriculture industry. Creating awareness and equipping workers with support resources will help reduce crisis situations.

"Members of the Kansas agriculture community feel stress that comes from many directions, and it is important that mental health is not overlooked," said Kansas Department of Agriculture Deputy Secretary Kelsey Olson. "These Kansans are valued members of their community and work hard to grow the food and fuel that supplies our state, nation and world. We look forward to using this grant to support all the members of our Kansas ag family and to shine a spotlight on the urgency of mental health in agriculture."

Congratulations to all winners in both competitions and thank you to Ag Relations Council and AFBF for facilitating these awards programs!

"Mental health is health, and we must continue to fight the stigma through accessible resources like the Kansas Ag Stress network - especially as suicide rates are climbing in rural areas," said Rep. Sharice Davids (KS-03). "Kansans work hard, and we take care of each other. Programs like this ensure every person in every corner of our state knows that if they are struggling, they are not alone, and there are resources here to help."

In total, the USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) announced an investment of nearly $25 million for 50 grants supporting Farm and Ranch Stress Assistance Network (FRSAN) State Department of Agriculture (SDA) projects.

Funded projects must initiate, expand, or sustain programs that provide professional agricultural behavioral health counseling and referral for other forms of assistance as necessary through farm telephone helplines and websites; training programs and workshops; support groups; and outreach services and activities.

The Professional Farmer

By Jackie Mundt, Pratt County farmer and rancher

Paid time-off for farmers is one of the intriguing ideas that caught the attention of our group during the recent Kansas Farm Bureau Casten Fellows international travel experience to the Baltics. One of the young farmers we met shared that the Replacement Farmers program provides subsidized, qualified workers to help during illness or time away on vacation.

This first-generation farmer said she uses the Replacement Farmers for education and expertise because of the knowledge and experience required of the fill-in workers.

That clear recognition of the mastery needed to succeed in farming was a lightbulb moment for our group. We realized that every farmer we met with in the Baltics has made a conscious decision with their career and business ownership.

There is no multi-generational pressure because farm ownership is still in the first generation. People choosing farming careers take their work seriously; they seek out education and training opportunities to improve themselves because everyone there remembers how many people failed at farming after the region was liberated from Soviet occupation. Farming is a respected profession.

Can a farmer be considered a professional? The status of being a professional probably seems like a silly question, but it's worth pondering.

The Oxford Languages dictionary definition of professional focuses on a person with "prolonged training or a formal qualification."

So many people in our world think farmers are people who lack intelligence and ambition. They definitely have no idea how many are college educated with degrees in everything from engineering and finance to chemistry and genetics. I always enjoy enlightening people who have never met a farmer and have visions of farmers being what they were portrayed as on television shows of the 1950s.

I think most modern farmers could pass the litmus test of training and qualification. However, in direct conflict with the idea of farmers being professionals is the Merriam Webster definition specifically states, "an occupation that is not mechanical or agricultural." That definition aligns with more medieval views that separate the learned professions (law, medicine and divinity) from other trades or farm laborers.

However, if we are going to believe historical definitions we need to include ones that add the idea of professionals providing services for the benefit of the client or the public. Farmers definitely do that.

As Americans, we enjoy the most abundant, safest and cheapest food supply in the world. That has allowed the public to detach itself from the realities of what it takes to ensure the security of this foundational need. The supply chain disruptions of the past 18 months are the first time in the lives of many generations' that we have had even the slightest moments of scarcity.

If you are one of the people just noticing farmers, I hope you see the way they have worked to improve their practices to ensure food safety; updated equipment and inputs to increase efficiency keeping costs low; and innovated and experimented to increase yields to keep up with global demand. They continue to plant their crops and care for animals whether prices are high or low. They wear dozens of hats and are continually learning to stay on top of their ever-changing industry.

Maybe you have never thought of farmers as professionals and think they do not strictly fit into the dictionary definitions. But, I challenge you to consider the complex nature of modern agricultural systems, their benefit to the public and the required skills formed through prolonged training it takes to produce our food. In the big picture, I believe farmers have earned the designation of professional.

"Insight" is a weekly column published by Kansas Farm Bureau, the state's largest farm organization whose mission is to strengthen agriculture and the lives of Kansans through advocacy, education, and service.

New Promotional Opportunity for Agritourism Venues

The American Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture is looking for orchards, pumpkin patches, corn mazes and more to showcase on a new app dedicated to connecting consumers with agritourism venues. The American Farm Trail app, created by the Foundation and sponsored by Corteva, allows farmers, ranchers, and farm attraction managers to sign up for free to showcase their agritourism venues. Farms and attractions can create a profile promoting their business, history, available products and more.

Consumers using the app will be able to connect directly with local farms by searching area, type of attraction or products for sale. The Foundation plans to launch the app in the spring of 2022.

Commission Minutes

Now on this 26th day of October 2021, the Board of Commissioners, Sheridan County, Kansas met in regular session with Chairman Wes Bainter presiding. Others present were Joe Bainter, Buck Mader, Joe Pratt, County Attorney and County Clerk Heather Bracht. Guests were Carolyn Meyer and The Sheridan Sentinel.

Wes Bainter called the meeting to order at 8:00 am.

Those in attendance stood and recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Joe Herskowitz, Road & Bridge Supervisor, came to the table.

Mader made a motion to have Bainter Oil fill the propane tank at the landfill, to purchase winter diesel and have Herskowitz combine the diesel that is left and treat it so it can be used up before it gets too cold. Joe Bainter seconded the motion. Carried 3-0

The east bay garage door at the shop is broke. One bid has been received and Herskowitz will bring in another bid for the next meeting along with a bid for a snowplow for the pickup.

Millings have been put down at the Sheridan/Graham County line bridge because the ground is so soft. Erwin Construction is ready to begin construction of the bridge.

Road & bridge department has been working on the first two hills on the Studley road that got washed out.

Grant Support

That initial phase is a 5-year pilot program.

The Hansen Board of Trustees is now announcing two additional grants. One will provide support for tangible needs such as office equipment, outdoor play equipment or other physical needs. The other is designed to increase the number of childcare slots by assisting with the start-up or expansion of nonprofit childcare centers, nonprofit group homes or licensed childcare homes.

Early Childhood Education Start-up or Expansion Grants
To assist communities to start or expand quality nonprofit early education centers or group homes in Northwest Kansas. In certain situations, the Hansen Foundation can also work through governmental or qualified non-profit entities to assist in the start-up or sustainability of licensed childcare homes.

The start-up and expansion grants require that applying communities have identified and qualified the need for additional childcare slots; engaged with other community members and entities to create a plan to solve the issue; committed to and have a plan to ensure a livable wage for childcare workers; explored and identified potential sites; and identified local funding sources.

Applicants can request funding to expand an existing childcare site, or to remodel a site for a new or expanded childcare site.

In addition, the Hansen Foundation has contracted to have at least 4 houses built that are designed to work as group homes. Applicants can request to be the recipient of one of these homes which are being built in Logan and will be moved to the applying community. Applicants for these three- bedroom, two-bathroom houses must consider moving costs, including foundation and access costs at the new site, as well as the cost to equip the houses with appliances, furniture and other necessities.

Early Childhood Education Enhancement Grants
The Enhancement Grant is designed to assist with physical needs beyond curriculum, such as office equipment or outdoor play equipment. Applicants are encouraged to explore currently available government grants as well as this new grant from the Hansen Foundation.

The grant is limited to nonprofit licensed childcare centers or group homes located in the 26-county area served by the Dane G. Hansen Foundation.

Home-based childcare businesses and preschools are not eligible for this grant.

More detailed information on the criteria for both grants as well as information on the group home houses is available on the Foundation's website: danehansenfoundation.org. Click on the NW Kansas Cares for Kids logo.

Grant deadlines are 9:00 a.m. on the 25th of each month. Grants from the Dane G. Hansen Foundation are available only to nonprofit organizations. For-profit centers that meet the above criteria can apply for similar assistance through the Northwest Kansas Economic Innovation Center, Inc., at NWKEICI.org.

that a few more mowing bills will be coming in next month.

Two individuals have used the drags and feel they have worked well.

Herskowitz was asked about a few warrants.

The Board advised Herskowitz to pull the Recycling ad as help is no longer needed. There was discussion about monitoring our contractors. The County does not need criticism for work the contractors are doing. Herskowitz is continuing to work on the map for mowing/dragging. There are a few miles in the NW corner and SE corner that he needs to look at to determine if the roads are primary or secondary.

Lance Coburn in the SE corner has started blading.

There was discussion about the bridge on the feedlot road. As far as the Board and Foote go, the bridge is fine. Penco Engineering will get with Herskowitz about posting weight signs. There is still ditch work that needs to be completed.

Pratt distributed a rough draft of a Resolution to sell equipment. Bracht will make necessary changes and will have at the next meeting for approval and signature.

Wes Bainter advised Carolyn Meyer that she needs to be on the agenda in three weeks with Karl Pratt and present/discuss the plans for the two community projects that benefit the community that the American Relief Act funds can possibly be used for.

Bracht discussed a bill received from the City of Hoxie for dumpster rental at the Historical Society in the amount of $75. The Board stated the County will pay it.

Mindy Harting, Appraiser, came to the table. Harting stated that she spoke with Legal Counsel for the Department of Revenue pertaining to the exemption at Living Word Fellowship. Based on the Deeds and statute, the exemption stands. Pratt stated he would like a copy of the Deeds and will do some further research.

Wes Bainter made a motion to approve the October 19, 2021 Minutes as presented. Mader seconded. Carried 3-0

Mader made a motion to approve the October 22, 2021 Payroll seconded by Wes Bainter. Carried 3-0

At 9:00 a.m. Wes Bainter opened the public hearing for the 2021 Amended Budget for Hospital Maintenance. The reason for amending the Hospital Maintenance Budget is due to more sales tax dollars being received than budgeted and in order to give the additional revenue to the hospital, the Budget needed amended. There being no discussion the Budget Hearing was closed. Wes Bainter made a motion to accept the 2021 Amended Budget, seconded by Joe Bainter. Carried 3-0

Michael O'Dell, Trisha Hageman, and Kyle Ahlenstorf from the Sheridan County Health Complex entered the meeting. O'Dell distributed and discussed the 3rd Quarter Financial Statement. O'Dell stated it has been a good year and they should close at a positive $1 million dollars. The FQHC has also received grant dollars and will have good seed money to start the annex.

O'Dell advised effective January 1, 2022, he will only be the Chief Financial Officer, which is his passion. He will step down as CEO at that time. They are currently seeking applicants for that position.

Hageman advised the Board that there are some finishing touches on the acute care remodel project but that it should be ready to be turned over to the hospital on November 9 and will be open for patients on November 12.

Hageman talked about Public Health and how busy they have gotten. The staff is still trying to come up with some type of plan for the Public Health Office to be open so that some of the services the Public

DON'T LOSE YOUR MARBLES! The challenge here is to arrange four marbles so that they are of equal distance from one another. The secret: Place three marbles in a tight triangle. Next, place the fourth marble on top in the center. All of the marbles are now equidistant from each other.

CHAIN REACTION! Take the seven letters printed below the diagram and place them in the circles so that eight four-letter words can be read top to bottom along the connecting lines. All the words will begin with the letter in the top circle.
